Enquires whether there is no other route which carts can take from the Adagoor plantation to the Bangalore road without damaging cultivated lands

5 From the same office N° 397 dated 10-4-11

States that from the Adgoor plantation thence to the Bangalore road there is only one other cart track besides the one referred to above which passes through slushy ground and adds that if carts must necessarily trespass on private lands some arrangement would have to be come to between the trespassers & the owners of the lands.

The Deputy Comm suggests that some arrangement between the lessees & the Forest Department might be necessary as there is no necessity for a road being opened. The plantation probably belongs to the Forest Department
